Northfield Indivisible needs marshals! Marshals are the orange vested people entrusted with keeping everyone safe during our rallies and marches. Our organization currently has 12 trained marshals. Our rallies are drawing ever larger numbers of supporters, so by next April, we will need to double that number.

Marshals DO NOT need to be big. Or young. Or physically strong. Marshals are trained in de-escalation techniques to help keep everyone calm and focused on the cause. My favorite training quote is: "If you've ever dealt with a toddler, you're half trained already!"

Becoming a trained member of Northfield Indivisible's marshal team involves attending a 90 minute training session that will include both informational presentations and simulations. There will be 2 training sessions some time between February 20 and March 6. Dates, times and locations of those training sessions will be set soon.

If you are interested in becoming a part of our marshal team, please contact our lead marshal Dean at lampfamily5474@gmail.com

NOTE TO JULIA & KELLY:

If you want to replace that last sentence with a less identifiable email, you have my blessing. If it's OK as is, that's good too. I've made a thoroughly considered choice to be visible.
